VB/I-70 Draft Interview Questions

1. What neighborhood do you live in and when did you move to the area?
2. Are you aware of the former environmental issues at the VB/I-70 site and the cleanup activities that have taken place to date?
   a. Are you aware that the OU1 residential soil cleanup was completed in 2017?
   b. Are you aware that EPA is trying to delist the residential soils portion (Operable Unit 1) of the site from the National Priorities List?
3. Was your property sampled during investigations and the residential soil cleanup actions?
4. What were the effects of the residential soil cleanup on the community?
5. Do you remember how you'd hear about the risks posed by the site during the residential soil cleanup?
   c. Do you think EPA did a good job explaining the differences between whether there were risks to people and how cleanup was progressing?
   d. Can you think of anything EPA could have done during the residential soil cleanup to better communicate these risks?
6. Have you ever received any communication from local, state or other federal agency officials about the cleanup, and/or restrictions (ICs) at the site?
7. How do you learn about what's happening at the site now?
8. What type of information do you feel that you need or want regarding the VB/I-70 Superfund Site?
9. Who would you contact if you have questions or concerns, or need information about the site?
10. What is the best way to keep the community informed about activities at the VB/I-70 Superfund Site?
    e. Did you see the Five-Year Review notice in the newspaper?
    f. Do you know of anyone who did?
    g. Where do you get local news information? Local television, radio stations, newspapers, the internet?
11. What effect has the remedy at this Site had on the surrounding community, if any?
12. Do you currently have any concerns about potential risks from the site?
13. Can you suggest other community members who would be interested in talking with us about the site?
14. Is there anything else you would like to add?